

are pleased to see him around again.

Knute Rogne received a card the other day from his brother, Torger, stating that he had landed safely in New York from overseas, and that he was to go to Camp Dix, New Jersey. The papers state that these troops will be sent to Fort Snelling.

Knute Norwinder is advertising an