

of drafted boys from Wyoming.

Wm. Rothert had the misfortune to be kicked badly by a horse yesterday, being struck on the knee. He managed, however to crank up his Ford and drive to town, where he had Dr. Truscott attend to the injury.