

Alfred Soli, who has been taking an enforced vacation of several weeks from his duties as bookkeeper for Buchheit-Bakken company, due to the effects of an operation, returned yesterday to again take up his work.

M. A. Hoyle returned last Wed