

Harold Sorvik has resigned his position at Buchheit-Bakken company's store and departed Monday for Cooperstown to again take up his former position in the grocery department of Syverson's store. Mrs. Sorvik and baby will remain here until a suitable house can be found to lease in Cooperstown.