

Rev. T. E. Sweger, chairman of the Griggs county thrift and war savings stamps committee, spoke to the children at the school house yesterday forenoon, explaining to them the necessity of buying these "baby bonds." This is a war for all the American people, and Rev. Sweger's talk to the children has stimulated an interest among them in the part that they can perform. He has enlisted the services of the teachers to aid in this work.