

pital until discharged to come home.

Many friends here of Gust Swenson, who is overseas, have received postal cards from him bearing Christmas and New Years greeting. Gust is a wagoner with the army of occupation in Germany. The cards show scenes of Echternach, a city in eastern Luxemburg, where he was at that time.

A. H. Overby received a message