

Ed Teare and family have left Binford to make their home at Sanborn. They went down on Monday and we understand are to go into the restaurant business at that place. The Times joins with others in wishing them success in their new venture.