

Miss Josephine Thingelstad is in the hospital at Fargo recovering from an operation upon her foot. Last Saturday evening while walking around the house she stepped on a needle running it into the foot. An operation was found necessary to extract the needle, which was performed yesterday morning. Mr. Thingelstad, who went down with her, returned home today.