

Mr. and Mrs. Knute Thune were given a big surprise last evening, when a sleigh load of young people from town walked in on them to spend the evening. Games were played and refreshments were served at midnight by the self-invited guests who brought along the eats.

The weather which is being doled