

Boy Pleased With Camp Life.

The following letter was received by D. A. Goplin from Peter Titterness, who enlisted a few weeks ago and was sent to Camp Greene.

Camp Greene, Charlotte.

March 7, 1918.

Dear Friend:-

Well, I am in the camp now and I tell you I like that life real well. I am not a bit sorry that I went as it is good for a fellow. The work is hard now and then but that is what puts the pep into a fellow. We drill every day, but we get two holidays each week, Wednesday and Saturday, and we have Sundays off.

We have a good time and get all we can eat, so we can't kick. It is hot down here but we get used to it. The weather here now is about as hot as it is in June up there.

Everybody here seems willing to go to France to fight and I hope we can go soon so we can get through with it.

Will send you a postal card of myself and part of the camp. The sun was too bright that day so you can't see much of the camp. I will send you a better one later on.

Will have to close for this time. Tell everybody bello from me that you think I know and tell them that army life is all right.

From your friend,

Peter Titterness,

Co. D, 58th Infantry,

4th Div., Camp Greene,

Charlotte, N. C.