

fined him to his home and bed for several days. With Doc it's different. He's got no business being sick, but now that he's improving and able to be down town—darned if we all don't feel kinder tickled that he has to take a dose of his own medicine once in awhile.

Sentinel-Courier: Attorney John