

was signed.

Adolph Tufteland arrived home yesterday after having been in foreign service about a year and a half. Adolph was a member of the 103rd hospital corps, and was close to the front giving first aid much of the time. The boys who return have many interesting and thrilling stories to tell of their experiences over there, and at the same time say they are mighty glad to be home once more.

The performance of the play