

Alva Weldon, who has been very ill with influenza and pneumonia, is improving and now on the road to recovery, which is good news to his many friends. His mother, sister and brother, who were called here, returned Sunday, by way of Hannaford, for their home at Detroit, Minnesota.