

the music for the occasion.

A. G. Wells has made arrangements to hold his sale of stock and farm machinery on March 4, 1919. This will be the largest farm sale held in the county for some time, and will include some of the finest horses ever sold at auction in the vicinity of Aneta. The sale will start at 9 o'clock a. m. sharp, and will be in charge of Cols. J. A. H. Winsloe and Fred Lewis, Auctioneers. Bear the date in mind.

C. E. Peterson attended to business