

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. West autoed to Courtenay Saturday evening to bring their son, Harwell, home for a short visit. Harwell had the misfortune last week to get two fingers crushed in the machinery at the print shop where he is employed.