

W. E. West and L. P. Larson motored to Kulm, this state, last Friday and while there closed a deal for the purchase of the newspaper at that place. Mr. West's son, Harwell, will manage and edit the paper. He has had some valuable experience in newspaper making since leaving Binford and The Times, hopes and predicts that he will make a success of the undertaking.