

M. E. Wilkinson, of Jessie, was in Binford Monday attending to business matters. Marion seemed exceedingly happy over the outcome of his crop. He also operated two threshing machines for which he received a goodly sum, in fact, a sufficient amount to liquidate all his indebtedness, with some to spare. And now he's worrying because his mail won't be congested with pleasant dunning letters. Marion has rented the Jas. McCulloch farm and will move onto the place as soon as Mr. McCulloch has his auction sale.

Mrs C. E. Peterson, who went to