

Hans Aasletten, of Pekin, passed away very suddenly on Monday from heart trouble. He was driving in a car with a friend when he died. No date has been set for the funeral until relatives of the deceased can be communicated with.