

McHenry Tribune: No more sorrowful words could have been uttered Wednesday afternoon than the words to the effect that "Mrs. Erick Alme is dead." A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alme Wednesday morning but the mother did not remain long on this earth to enjoy the blessing of the babe in her home, passing to her final reward about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, September 7. The taking away of Mrs. Alme seems unusually hard because seven children are left without the guiding care of mother. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.
