

---

McHenry Tribune: Word reached here the first of the week announcing the death of G. P. Cross, at the home of his son, A. Cross, at Dawson, N. Dak. "Dad" Cross, as he was familiarly known was the first cashier of the First National bank, being the Farmers Bank in the beginning. He severed his connection with the bank about eight years ago.

---

---