

Overby.

Dr. J. E. Featherstone the well-known Valley City dentist, who used to pay periodical visits to Binford before Binford acquired a resident dentist, died suddenly at his home in Valley City Monday afternoon, Nov. 7th, of heart failure. He retired after dinner Monday afternoon complaining of a head ache. Later when Mrs. Featherstone went into his room to see him she found him dead.