Leavenworth, Wash., Echo: O. A. Lee received a telegram Monday forenoon telling of the death of his brother-in-law, C. E. Lind. The family resided at Tolna, N. Dak., but the telegram came from Warwick, the second town west, near which Mr. Lind owned a farm and in which place the family formerly lived. No particulars were given as to the cause of Mr. Lind's death and it is presumed that it was accidental. Mr. Lee left Monday afternoon on No. 4 to attend the funeral and remain a few days with his sister.
