

to be recovering in the St. Luke's hospital at Fargo, where he had been confined for several months. The deceased spent the greater portion of his life on his farm three miles south of Jessie. Six years ago his wife passed to the great beyond and not long afterwards Mr. Lowe retired, spending the winters in Minneapolis. The past two years his health has been somewhat improved but last fall he became so ill it was necessary to take him to the hospital, where he remained until his death. The deceased leaves to mourn his death three sons, Emil and Herman, of Jessie, and Henry, of Fargo, and two daughters, Mrs. E. J. Collette, of Cooperstown and Mrs. A. L. Green, of Jessie, and other relatives.
