F. W. Soule, the eyesight specialist, will be at Binford hotel again, Monday afternoon, Sept. 12, prepared to examine defective eyes and fit glasses when needed. Don't miss this chance to have your eyes properly fitted.

Julius Thorn has loaded one of his threshing outfits and shipped it to Bengough, Sask., where he has engaged a large run of threshing. Mr. Thorn, Engineer Bottom, Niek Ethen, and several other members of the crew accompanied the shipment.

A deal was made this week whereby Otto H. Bruns becomes the owner of the F. G. Lewis residence property in south Binford. Mrs. Bruns and children will move in immediately to give the children advantage of a better school. Mr. Bruns will move in later in the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will live on the farm at Red Willow lake, while Howard and Edna will remain in town to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Alfson autoed to

Cooperstown last Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. N. O. Melby, who died in St. Luke's hospital in Fargo last week, Tuesday. Mrs. Melby was first taken sick on Friday evening, August 12, and as her condition proved serious she was taken to Fargo the following evening where she operated on for appendicitis and gall stones. After the operation Mrs. Melby apparently had every chance for recovery, and death came as a surprise to friends here.

Pekin Budget: In spite of the strenuous fight that is put up against the dreaded sow thistle, and marked efforts made in this part of the county, yet a flourishing patch of this obnoxious weed can be found in Bergen township less than four miles from Pekin, ripening and spreading its filthy seed through the air by the strong fall winds. Little does it avail town officers and farmers to buy machinery and spend time killing the weed in the rest of the neighborhood if ONE man is permitted to keep, unmolested, in defiance of law, a ver-
