

Knute Norswing and family returned home last week from Fargo, where they had been with one of the children for surgical treatment. On their arrival home Mr. Norswing received word that his mother had died at Nerstrand, Minnesota, and Mr. Norswing left on the train that afternoon to be present at the funeral.