

Pete Ramsey, a young man, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ramsey, passed away Monday at a hospital in Valley City, where he was taken for treatment. He was taken sick about the first of the month with quincy. At the hospital he underwent a slight operation, and was well on the road to recovery, so much so that his folks who accompanied him to Valley City.