

hurryingly left for each home.

A sale of more than usual interest is to be held on the J. B. Armstrong farm west of Hannaford on Tuesday, July 24, when he will sell at public auction 29 head of his splendid Shorthorn herd of cattle. This sale will draw people from all parts of this section of the northwest, as Mr. Armstrong's cattle are well known to breeders and farmers interested in pure breds. H. O. Tellier, famous live-stock auctioneer, is to cry the sale.