

"BE PREPARED"

What more fitting motto could be placed before the boys of the nation than those two words? These two words embrace the twelve points of the Scout Law. A scout must live up to the twelve points of the Scout Law, which are: A scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent toward God. Besides these twelve laws, a scout must do at least "one good turn daily."

The Binford Troop has been organized into three patrols which include 27 boys. Manfred Knapp, Harold Bakke, and Elias Halling have been chosen patrol leaders for the present. Rev. Halling, Dr. Truscott and C. F. Asmus have been selected as a Troop Committee to advise and help the Scout Master in carrying out his work.
