

W. M. Dredon.

Henry Beck suffered injuries to his head and body last Friday afternoon at the E. L. Watne farm. He had stopped there on his way to Jessie and was leading the team hitched to a buggy, through a gate when the horses became unruly and ran over him, knocking him down and trampling on him. He was taken to Cooperstown the following day where he is being cared for.