

Frank Besse, who has been on the pitching staff of the local base ball club, departed this morning for Fargo, where he expects to land a position for a short time, after which he will go to southern Minnesota, to finish the season. Frank is one of the strongest pitchers playing semi-pro ball in this state and he will have no trouble making good with any ball team playing in this class.

The school board