

Armistice Day Program Arranged

Plans and arrangements have been completed for an entertainment for Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11, to be given under the auspices of the Jonas Helland Legion Post and Woman's Auxiliary. A program of appropriate numbers is to be given at the hall in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the public is cordially invited to come, free of charge. At the conclusion of the program, the ladies will serve and sell lunch and coffee in the lodge rooms upstairs.

An important feature of the day's activities will be the opening of the library. The ladies of the Auxiliary have gathered about 250 books, which have been properly cataloged and labeled, all ready to be loaned out to anyone who cares to read, at a small fee.

Plans are also under way to have a Tag day. When approached on Armistice Day, buy a tag thereby helping boost for a good cause. The tags will sell for the very small sum of 10 cents.

The committee in charge of the program has been fortunate in securing Mr. A. I. Johnson, of Hannaford, to deliver an address. Mr. Johnson is an ex-service man, and is a speaker of unusual ability and clear delivery. Come out and enjoy the program and help the Legion and Auxiliary celebrate the day.

The program will begin at 2:30 o'clock and follows:

Community Singing.

Recitation by Sidney Bakke.

Vocal Solo, L. P. Larson.

Address by Mr. A. I. Johnson.

Instrumental Duet, Evelyn Alfson and Blanche Greenland.

Community singing, "Star Spangled Banner."
