

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

The Legion and Auxiliary held their regular joint meeting Friday evening with several members present. After the routine business was conducted, refreshments were served by Mrs. C. F. Asmus and Mrs. H. O. Alm.

The next social meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Olson, on Thursday of next week.

Much interest is being manifested in the library recently opened, and many of the books are being loaned out. Twenty new books were ordered again Tuesday, among them being some thrilling westerns, and other popular fiction.

At the last meeting of the Auxiliary it was decided to take what money here is in the treasury and send it to the hospitalization committee so as to be distributed among disabled war veterans before the Christmas holidays.

The library is open to the public on Wednesday evenings, each week, from 7 to 8 o'clock, and Saturday afternoons, from 3 to 5 o'clock. All books rent for 10 cents, with a penalty of 1 cent a day added if book is kept over the two-week time limit.

The date of the next joint meeting is Friday, December 29. All members of both orders are urged to attend these regular monthly meetings. Lunch will be served. Let's see you all there.
