

throw good heat. In this way, considering the cost of hard coal, he gets 60 cents a bushel for his potatoes. He also furnishes his customers with baked potatoes while they wait, and they sure are delicious, we have tried 'em. The baked potatoes are free, but Mr. Evanson will not furnish martingale sandwiches. However, all jokes aside, the potatoes make fine fuel.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY NOTES

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary was held Friday evening. After the usual routine business had been conducted a social hour was enjoyed. In a flower contest, Mrs. Julius Thorn won first prize.

About twenty new books have been added to the Legion library during the past month.

The next social meeting of the Auxiliary will be held Saturday afternoon with Mrs. C. F. Asmus as hostess.

The members of the Auxiliary last week sent five boxes of candy and some cookies to the soldier boys who are patients at a Jamestown hospital.
