

tempting lunch.

The members of the American Legion and Auxiliary met in regular session Friday evening in the lodge rooms. After the business of the meeting had been disposed of, a program of games was enjoyed. A delectable lunch served by Mrs. C. F. Asmus added to the good cheer of the occasion.

Little Buelah May, daughter of