

Thieves entered the garage of the Binford Auto Co. early last Saturday morning and made their get-away with five tire casings. Entrance was made through the front door, the parties evidently having a key to fit the lock. So far, all search for the tires or thieves has proven fruitless.

---