

...evening closed with a fine ch.
Binford played another consist-game of base ball Sunday when continued its losing streak, this losing to the Cooperstown team a 5-4 count in an extra inning test. Olstad and Olson, pitch-for Binford, were touched up 12 hits, while E. Johnson, Co-pitcher allowed seven. Eleven Binford batters struck out and only three Cooperstown men were retir-the same way. Binford scored once in the first, twice in the fifth, once in the sixth. Cooper scor-once in the third, three in the and once in the tenth. Two ers and a hit gave Cooperstown winning run in the tenth.