

for any of 'em.

The base ball game at Hannaford last Sunday resulted in a regular massacre of the Hannaford team, Binford winning by a 17-0 score, or something like that. LaPlante, for Binford, pitched a good game, allowing only seven scattered hits, and was exceptionally stingy in pinches. Binford batters made the occasion a splendid one for fattening their batting averages.

Cards were received in Binford