

The old post office building has been fitted up with shelving and counters, to be used for temporary quarters by the Buchheit-Bakken Co. A stock of groceries and a staple line of dry goods, work clothing and a small line of shoes will be handled. Some of the stock is already here and the balance will arrive in a few days.