

...runds for some worthy cause.

Carpenters are at work putting the finishing touches to the paint room, office and parts room in the new garage. The paint room has been completed, except for a few minor details, so that work in that department can be commenced at any time. In a few days the other rooms will be completed, permitting a more advantageous display of their goods, and the removal of the company's business office from the dirt and grease in the work shop.

The ladies of the... of the... Trip