

Ellis.

Harry Thompson, of the Sentinel-Courier force at Cooperstown, was Saturday tuning up the 410- at The Times office. Harry did a good job of it and this week's composition has been gotten up with much less strain on the operator's nerves, and consequently more patience on the part of the boss.

Leo Pusc came up from St. Cloud