

ness. Temporary quarters have been obtained in the basement of the First State bank until further plans are made for the future.