

The Woodworth Elevator Co. has closed their elevators here and at Cooperstown on account of the poor crop that will be harvested this fall. J. M. Paulson, who has been buying grain here for this company, has been transferred to Lancaster, Minnesota, and will move his family and household goods there in a few days.