

The dance given by the Camp Fire Girls Friday evening was well attended, and the crowd ETAINRAT tended, and those who were there report it one of the most enjoyable affairs ever put on here. The hall and stage were nicely decorated with gayly colored streamers in St. Patrick's colors, and the Boy Scouts furnished the music. While the confetti lasted all present had a most hilarious time, carnival style. Supper was served at Maurer's hotel.