

CAMP FIRE GIRLS' PARTY

The Sakakawea Camp Fire Girls and Guardian, Miss Shelp, pleasantly entertained the Boy Scouts and the Scout Master, Mr. Bixby, at a party in the I. O. O. F. hall, last Wednesday evening.

The principle feature of the evening was the presentation by the Camp Fire Girls, assisted by Howard Lewis, of a little play entitled, "The Mouse Trap." Lydia Halling did very well in her role as Mrs. Somers, while Howard Lewis took the part of Mr. Campbell, her suitor. Susie Shaw played the part of the maid, and Pearl Peterson, Evelyn Alfson, Laura Rice, and Christine Helland had the parts of the ladies who came to call on Mrs Somers.

Several readings interspersed with musical numbers were presented by the entertainers. The comb song, rendered by a group of Camp Fire Girls, evoked much merriment, as did the Hawaiian dancers in their crowns of raffia, singing Hawaiian melodies to the accompaniment of a ukelele.

Numerous games and interesting stunts caused the evening to pass all too soon. In a mock wedding comedy, Manfred Knapp made a charming young bride, while Elias
