

Halling was a most fascinating groom. There were attendants and flower girls. Mr. Bixby and Howard Lewis were the participants in the "catching the train" stunt.

Delicious refreshments were served, more games were played, and when the Boy Scouts departed for home, they declared that the evening had been most enjoyable, and one that would long be remembered.

---