

for their homes.

The Sakakawea Camp Fire Girls of Binford and Guardian express sincere thanks to the many kind friends who so generously remembered them with good eats, and who rendered their services to the girls gratis during their outing at Red Willow lake.

Announcements have been received