

The Dramatic club is coming to life again and it is very probable that one, and possibly two, plays, will be put on by local talent during February and March. Copies of plays have been ordered and as soon as they arrive, a meeting will be called to select the cast of characters for each. The home talent plays given heretofore have furnished excellent entertainment during the dull winter months, in addition to providing funds for some worthy cause.

Carpenters are at work putting