

---

The programs given last week by the Federated Community association were attended by packed houses and if The Times is to judge by the comment heard, they just barely "got by" and apparently there is some good reason for this. There is no denying that the lectures by Mrs. Abt were interesting, though many are of the opinion that they savored too much of personal glory. However, if it were possible to overlook this objectionable feature, the lec-

---