The annual election of officers of the Binford Fire department was held last Friday evening. Elmer Krogfoss was re-elected chief, and will serve his third term, after which he becomes a life member of the North Dakota Firemens' association. George Olstad was re-elected assistant chief, and Emil Olson retains his office of secretary-treasurer. The annual tournament is to be held in Lidgerwood sometime in June. Delegates from the local department will be selected at the meeting next month.
