

The Firemen entertained last Thursday and Friday evenings with a good movie, "The Third Alarm". They showed to a full house on Thursday evening, and put on a dance following the show Friday night. Financially, the boys broke about even on receipts and expenses.